SACRIFICIAL Faith: An Evidence of SAVING Faith

Week 11 — James 2:20-26

Week 10 Rewind: The “good” things that we do will NEVER pardon us from our sins and get us to heaven when we die, HOWEVER, if we have genuine, saving faith, then good works will be abundant in our life and our lifestyle will reflect our faith!

Read It: James 2:20-26

²⁰ You foolish man, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless? ²¹ Was not our ancestor Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? ²² You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did. ²³ And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness," and he was called God's friend. ²⁴ You see that a person is justified by what he does and not by faith alone.

²⁵ In the same way, was not even Rahab the prostitute considered righteous for what she did when she gave lodging to the spies and sent them off in a different direction? ²⁶ As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead.

Good Stuff: Abraham...Who's he?

In the book of Genesis, we learn that God promised Abraham a son from whom he would receive countless descendants. Even though Abraham and his wife Sara were very old, he believed God. Twenty years later, when Abraham was about 100 years old, Sara conceived Isaac who became the joy and love of Abraham's heart. When Isaac was a teenager, God asked Abraham to place his son on an altar to sacrifice him as an evidence of Abraham's love and obedience toward God.

Abraham chose to obey God no matter the consequence. It had to cross Abraham's mind that God promised to make him the father of a mighty nation through Isaac and his descendants....Why would the Lord ask him to sacrifice that promise? Why would the Lord ask him to give up the good gift that God had given? Abraham had to risk all of his hopes and dreams on the conviction that God would keep His promise, even if God had to resurrect Isaac from the dead!

Abraham obeyed. He bound Isaac, placed him on the altar, raised the knife....and was literally stopped by an angel who said, "Do not lay a hand on the boy. Do not do anything to him. Now I know that you fear (honor, reverence) God, because you have not withheld from Me your son, your only son." Then Abraham looked up and saw that God had provided a ram that was caught in some bushes to take Isaac's place as the sacrifice!

Good Stuff: Rahab...Who's she?

Rahab, a Canaanite prostitute, decided that the God of Israel was more worthy of her allegiance than the idols of Canaan. Rahab showed her new loyalty by risking her life to protect two Israelites from the king of Jericho. (See Joshua 2:1-24)

Talk About It:

1. How did Abraham's actions demonstrate his faith?
2. Together, read aloud verse 22. Give as many examples as you can from the world around you where you see faith and actions working together.
3. What are some ways to truly put your faith into action on your campus?
4. What did Abraham sacrifice? What did that prove?
5. What do you think that Rahab sacrificed?
6. What are some things that the Lord asks us to give up in order to follow Him?
7. Why might the Lord ask you to sacrifice (give up) something good?
8. Re-read verses 21-23. Why was Abraham called "God's friend?"
9. How is your friendship with God demonstrated?

Live It:

Get Real -- Abraham and Rahab had to be able to hear God in order for them to know what He wanted them to do. How does God communicate with you today in order for you to be able to be obedient and follow Him?
